

This information is based on incidence data you have provided Medline, as well as your employees' test results. Cost savings is calculated using the CDC Healthcare Infection Control Practices Advisory Committee's guidelines on the estimated cost of $40,000 per patient to treat one case of ventilator-associated pneumonia.

